Call To Worship

One: May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

One: This is God's land. From coast to coast to coast, from the far off reaches of the north, to the windswept shores of east and west, to our southern border,
God is present in this land.

All: This is our land too!

One: Here are God's people.
From Aboriginal Nations to recent immigrants, from fifth generation farmers to newly arrived professionals, God' people surround us.

All: We are the people of this land.

One: Now is God's time. In summer retreats and in holiday places, amid bird song, salt spray, or farm scented air, in cathedral sanctuaries and in parkland gatherings, we honor this holy day together.

All: This is a time to honor God.
Let us give God thanks and praise.

Prayer of Approach (in unison)

Loving and gracious God, we give you thanks for the gifts of summer—green grass, trees in leaf, flowers in bloom, the harvest of field, garden and sea. We give you thanks for holiday time, special visits from family and friends, and all that offers new possibilities to our living. Keep us open to the beauty which surrounds us and to the faith and hope which support our living. May this time of worship nurture within us such a faith and such a hope and the desire for vital living. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen

Call to Worship

One: Behold, God is doing a new thing.

All: Here. Now. In the midst of our routines.

One: The Holy One who created heaven and earth forms us afresh today.

All: Let our spirits rise to greet our Maker. Amen!

Prayer of Approach (in unison)

We come to this place, God, because somewhere in our lives, faintly or distinctly, we have heard you call to us. We come—some sleepily, some alert, some tired, some energized—to share in your presence. We come to say thanks that we are your people. We come to worship, to know better what your call upon us means. Amen

Call to Worship

One: It is good to give thanks to you, O God,

All: to declare your steadfast love in the morning;

One: for you have made us glad by your work;

All: At the works of your hands,
we sing for joy.

Prayer of Approach (in unison)

God, your changes touch our lives with mystery and hope. We come to this place today, ready to see your power working through us. Help us to be open to your Word, and to answer your call among us. Through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen

How to Become a Part of Silver Falls United Church

Profession of Faith (Confirmation)

This means to publicly profess the faith proclaimed in your baptism. Confirmation classes are usually 6 to 8 weeks in duration. Please let the office or Rev. Angela know if you are interested. (classes starting soon)

- ✓ Commit yourself to follow the way of Christ in your public and private life
- ✓ Profess faith in one God
- ✓ Support the life and work of Christ's church

Transfer of Membership

Requesting from the church which you are currently a member of, to officially transfer your membership, by letter, to Silver Falls United Church. You will then be welcomed as a new member during a worship service.

Adherent

You may prefer to leave your membership elsewhere (although we encourage you to transfer to Silver Falls) while you fellowship with us either temporarily or permanently.
